

UGANDA TIMES NEWS :

THE FESTIVE SEASON

FESTIVE
Season

May your festive season
Be filled with joy.

News headlines.

This year's festive season is to be celebrated in the people's home villages. As it have been discovered that a variety of children grow up in urban areas which has resulted into incest due to the fact that they grow without knowing their fellows who are in the villages to be welcomed and later be taken to their respective hotel rooms in order to have some rest. The tour guides are to take on their responsibilities the next day. The tourists are to travel by tourist vans and maybe those with personal vehicles are to use them with care as there are dangerous wild animals in the national parks. tourists are advised to be very careful.

Queen Elizabeth National Park, Bwindi Impenetrable, Lake Katwe, Amahere ga Nyinamwiru and the equator. The tourist are

The government has organised this year's world tourism day in Kasese district.

The world tourism day of this year is to be held on the date of 24th October, 2024. The event is to be held in Kasese district in the Western part of Uganda. The places to be toured are;

New fashion trends of 2024 : gentle , office wear , ladies outfit , bride and groom ,birthday parties and weddings.

Manchester united is planning on selling its goal keeper "Onana" at 600 US Dollars to Manchester city the next season. on page 27.